

MODERN TIMES

Wedding Ceremonies & Receptions • Corporate Events
Anniversaries • Mitzvahs • Cocktail Parties • Reunions

MODERN TIMES is a sophisticated and creative variety, jazz and dance band with horns and vocals. Under the leadership of noted saxophonist Matt Ferrante, Modern Times performs music for weddings (receptions & ceremonies), corporate events, fundraisers, trade shows, conventions, graduation parties, anniversaries, social functions, Mitzvahs, and charity balls. We offer a personalized service for events in and around the Pittsburgh area, including eastern Ohio and upper West Virginia. Smaller ensembles and solo instrumentalists are available.

Planning Music for Your Event

Whether you are planning a wedding, cocktail party or sacred event, your choice of music will set the tone for the day. Whether you want Bach, The Beatles or Beck, Modern Times can meet your needs, matching the music and energy level to suit the style of your event. Ethereal ceremony music, elegant jazz instrumentals and lively dance music for a reception: we can do it all!

Especially for Weddings

Wedding entertainment requires certain expertise and experience. With Modern Times' extensive repertoire, we can skillfully mix the music so that none of your guests feels left out. We know how to encourage everyone to join in the fun.

Matt is an experienced emcee and can gladly handle any announcements or introductions throughout the reception. We can manage the entire reception either with or without event planners, ensuring you peace of mind so you can enjoy your day.

Choosing the right entertainment for your event is a big decision. How do you know which band is right for you? Sometimes hearing other people's experience can help you feel assured that you're making the right choice. Modern Times has hundreds of testimonials that speak to our quality, professionalism and musicianship. Here are just a few:

"Thank you very much your stellar performance at our wedding! You exceeded all expectations, and even today, months after the wedding, people are remarking how fabulous you were. Thanks once again!"

"Thank you for the wonderful job you did at our wedding on Aug. 14th. The music was perfect and your poise and professionalism made the evening truly unforgettable. When we remember our wedding, now and for years to come, we will think of you and all you did to make our wedding special!"

*Jeff & Anne Wetzel
Wedding at Sheraton Station Square*

"I wanted to thank you for the amazing job you did at our wedding reception. Every guest must have told me how incredible you were! We all just let loose and had a great time dancing. (I think everyone danced and it was great.) The band sounded perfect! Thanks for all of your hard work. You helped make my wedding day a perfect, memorable day!"
